

I appreciate the opportunity to comment on the Low Power FM stations. Please do not let these LPFM stations take priority over current FM translator services. This is a very important issue for thousands of listeners to translator stations like K-LOVE and American Family Radio. These types of stations have become a very powerful source of information and encouragement to so many. Thank you.